

Getting to know the DANCERS.....JOHN JURICH

What is your connection to Annunciation?

"The old one of the dancing bunch!" My wife Margie and I came to Annunciation in 1994 when we moved up here. Our four children : Alex, Molly, Jack and Mary all went to Annunciation. I was a member of the school board and helped re-write the mission statement for Annunciation several years ago. Our whole life in Minnesota has been connected to Annunciation and this is where we have made some of our closest friends!

What are some things that you love about Annunciation?

We love the PEOPLE. As I stated earlier, some of our best friends are connected with Annunciation, many of whom will be in attendance at the event! The lifelong connections that are made and kept.

What has been the hardest part of learning to dance for DWAS?

Trying to pull the whole routine together flawlessly although my dance partner has eased the pain.

What has been enjoyable about learning to dance for DWAS?

Learning to dance with a professional like Laia who is not afraid to try anything as you will see in the routine!

If you could give one word to describe your dance routine, what would it be?

Only one word: "Energetic"
